Market View from the Technical & Derivatives Research Desk

The flagship index NIFTY 50 rose 0.2% to close at 23,213.20 on Wednesday as traders remained cautious ahead of U.S. inflation data and the earnings season. On the technical front, the index remained in consolidation for the second consecutive session and formed a doji candlestick pattern on the daily chart. The index is likely to move towards the 23350–23450 range, where next leg of selling pressure may emerge as part of its consolidation phase. On the downside, support is placed at 23150/23040-23000 levels. A breach below 23000 could trigger further downside towards 22850/22700 levels. Traders are advised to maintain tight stop losses, as the index is trading in a critical zone that could witness heightened volatility

Bank Nifty

On Wednesday, the banking index BANKNIFTY witnessed a tug-of-war between buyers and sellers and formed a doji candlestick pattern on the daily chart. Technically, the index is currently hovering around its crucial demand zone of 48500-49000 levels and a decisive breakout beyond this range would dictate the near term trend. On the upside, BANKNIFTY is likely to face resistance at 49000/49250 levels while support for the banking index is observed at 48500/48200 levels. Keep an eye on Q3FY25 earnings, Crude Oil price movements and ongoing geopolitical tensions which could influence domestic market trends.
