Technical View – MCX Gold

International Gold remained above $2,930 per ounce on Wednesday, hovering near record highs as investors analyzed the latest FOMC minutes for policy insights. From a technical perspective, MCX Gold saw profit bookings at higher levels and formed a gravestone doji candlestick pattern on the daily chart. Recent price action suggests a pattern where MCX Gold shows weakness on one day but surpasses its high in the following sessions, indicating strong buying interest at lower levels. If MCX Gold breaks above 86120, it could advance towards 86500/86800 levels. Conversely, support for the commodity can be seen at 85650/85250 levels. Traders are advised to maintain tight stop losses, as the index is trading in a critical zone that could witness heightened volatility.
